

ADA TESTING ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

Applicants who request testing accommodations pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) must make the request on the ADA Accommodations Forms. Prov administers the tests in a manner that does not discriminate on the basis of disability against a qualified Applicant. An Applicant who is otherwise eligible to take the Prov Examination may file a request for testing accommodations.

DEFINITIONS

The Americans with Disabilities Act provides comprehensive civil rights protection for qualified individuals with disabilities. An individual with a disability is a person who: (1) has a physical impairment or a mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity, (2) has a record of such an impairment, or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment.

A qualified individual with a disability means an Applicant with a disability who, with or without reasonable modification to Rules, Policies, or Practices; the removal of architectural, communication, or transportation barriers; or the provision of auxiliary aids and services, meets the essential eligibility requirements for licensure for the specific client being tested.

Major life activities include functions such as caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, and working. An individual who currently uses illegal drugs is not protected by the ADA when a decision not to provide accommodations is made based upon his/her current illegal use of drugs.

Physical impairment means any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems neurological, musculoskeletal, special sense organ, respiratory (including speech organs), cardiovascular, reproductive, digestive genitourinary, hemic and lymphatic, skin and endocrine.

Mental impairment shall mean any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities.

Reasonable accommodations mean an adjustment or modification of the standard testing conditions that ameliorates the impact of the Applicant's disability without doing any of the following: (1) fundamentally altering the nature of the examination such that the ability to determine through the examination whether the Applicant possesses the essential skills and aptitudes that the Board has determined are appropriate to require for (2) imposing an undue burden on the Board, (3) compromising the security of the Examination, or (4) comprising the integrity, the reliability, or the validity of the Examination.

PROCEDURE

A request for testing accommodations shall be on forms prescribed by the Board and shall consist of all of the following. The REQUIRED FORMS are included on the following pages. You may print and copy the forms as many times as necessary. NOTE: EVEN IF YOU WERE APPROVED FOR

ACCOMODATIONS FOR A PRIOR EXAM, YOU MUST SUBMIT FORM “A” IF YOU WISH TO RECEIVE ACCOMMODATIONS FOR A SUBSEQUENT EXAM.

- FORM A: Petition for Testing Accommodations—Must be completed by the Applicant.
- FORM B: Certificate of Medical/Psychological Authority—Must be completed by a physician, psychologist, or professional licensed to diagnose and treat your disability.
  - NOTE: Your petition for accommodations WILL NOT be considered if FORM B is not completed by the authority and returned to Prov by the posted deadline. Please note that the reviewing consultant requires recent testing and/or evaluations to be submitted with Form B—typically within the past 5 years with regard to attention/learning/psychological disabilities and within the past 1 year with regard to physical/visual/hearing disabilities.
- FORM C: Certificate of Accommodations—Must be completed by an official of your school, an official of a national standardized examination (e.g., ACT, SAT, or LSAT) on which you received testing accommodations, or an Employer who provided you with accommodations.
  - NOTE: You must copy and complete FORM C as many times as necessary to send to each school, testing entity or workplace where you received accommodations.
- FORM D: Authorization for Release of Information—For release of records from the Applicant’s medical authorities or for the purpose of determining whether the Applicant is a qualified individual with a disability.
  - NOTE: You MUST copy and complete FORM D as many times as necessary to send to each provider.

The REQUIRED FORMS and associated documentation MUST be received by Prov at least 3 weeks prior to the desired testing date. Failure to provide all documentation by the deadline may result in you not being considered for the accommodations requested.
